The WBSC parties undertake to disseminate the culture of ethics and integrity within their respective areas of competence and to serve as role models.

ARTICLE 2.  SCOPE OF APPLICATION

2.1 The WBSC parties undertake to comply and ensure compliance with the WBSC Code of Ethics in the following circumstances:

2.1.1 The World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC), each of its members and its administration, and the National Olympic Committees (NOC) and their officials, at all times and in all circumstances;

2.1.2 All World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events participants, throughout each edition for which they are accredited;

2.1.3 The National Federations (NFs) and their officials, in all their relations with the WBSC;

2.1.4 The organisations and their officials taking part in any type of candidature procedures of the WBSC, throughout the procedure in question; and

2.1.5 The Organising Committees for the World Cups and the WBSC Sanctioned Events and their officials, throughout the existence of each such Committee.

2.2 The National Olympic Committees, the National Federations and the Organising Committees for all World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events undertake to adopt, for their internal activities, a code of ethics based on the principles and rules of the WBSC Code of Ethics, or in a written declaration to adopt the WBSC Code of Ethics.

3.2.2 Respect of the principle of the universality and political neutrality of the International Baseball/Softball Family and Olympic Movement;

3.2.3 Maintaining harmonious relations with state authorities, while respecting the principle of autonomy as set out in the WBSC Statutes and By-Laws and the Olympic Charter;

3.2.4 Respect for international conventions on protecting human rights insofar as they apply to the activities in the World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events and which ensure in particular:

3.2.4.1 respect for human dignity;

4.3 Only tokens of consideration or friendship of nominal value, in accordance with prevailing local customs, may be given or accepted by the WBSC or third parties. Such tokens may not lead to the impartiality and integrity of the WBSC parties being called into question. Any other form of token, object or benefit constitutes a gift, which may not be accepted, but must be passed on to the organisation of which the beneficiary is a member.

4.4 For hospitality shown to the WBSC parties, as well as those accompanying them, a sense of measure must be respected.

4.5 The WBSC parties must refrain from placing themselves in any conflict of interests, and must respect the Rules Concerning Conflicts of Interests Affecting the Behaviour of WBSC Parties.

5.5.10 To demonstrate an attitude of cooperation and support towards the organisers of competitions and official events under the jurisdiction of the WBSC and, in each of them, to make appropriate use of the means and resources placed at their disposal.

5.5.11 To refrain from demonstrating or accepting, in any circumstances, physical or verbal aggression or gestures that undermine physical or moral integrity or human dignity.
5.5.12 At all times, to strenuously reject any conduct that promotes, encourages or protects the use of illegal substances in sport.

5.5.13 To defend moral and ethical principles in sport by setting a personal example, taking a firm and unbending stance towards any manifestation of corruption, dishonesty or fanaticism that may arise within the WBSC or its competitions or official activities.

5.5.14 To foster feelings of friendship, companionship and solidarity among athletes, coaches, umpires, administrators, officials, managers and local authorities, expressed through absolute respect towards persons, institutions, countries and their symbols.

   a. the use of these WBSC resources for WBSC purposes must be clearly demonstrated in the accounts;
   b. the accounts of the WBSC parties may be subjected to auditing by an expert designated by the WBSC Executive Board.

6.5 The WBSC parties recognise the significant contribution that broadcasters, sponsors, partners and other supporters make to the development and prestige of the World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events throughout the world. In order to preserve the integrity and neutrality of the various candidature procedures, the support and promotion of any of the candidatures by broadcasters, sponsors, partners and other supporters must be in a form consistent with the rules of sport and the principles defined in the Olympic Charter and the present Code. However, the WBSC TOP Sponsors and other WBSC marketing partners must refrain from supporting or promoting a candidature within any of the WBSC candidature procedures. The broadcasters, sponsors, partners and other supporters must not interfere in the running of sports organisations.

ARTICLE 7. CANDIDATURES

7.1 The WBSC parties shall respect the integrity of any candidature procedure initiated by the WBSC, in order to allow equal access to the promotion of each candidature and the refusal of any risk of conflict of interests. Out of respect for the principle of neutrality of WBSC Members, no public declaration appearing to give a favourable opinion of one of the candidatures may be made.

7.2 The WBSC parties will respect the requirements of the various procedures published by the WBSC, particularly regarding the selection of World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events host cities, as well as the Rules of Conduct Applicable to All Cities Wishing to Organise World Cups and WBSC Sanctioned Events (Event Host Manuals).

10.2 The WBSC Office is available to the WBSC Ethics Commission to disseminate and implement the present Code.
CHAPTER II – DIRECTIONS CONCERNING THE ELECTIONS OF THE WBSC PRESIDENT

In the event of a serious breach of these Directions, the case shall be referred to the WBSC Executive Board for possible sanctions.
CHAPTER III – RULES CONCERNING CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS AFFECTING THE BEHAVIOUR OF WBSC PARTIES

ARTICLE 19. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

19.1 These Rules apply to WBSC parties as defined by the WBSC Code of Ethics preamble.

ARTICLE 20. DEFINITION

20.1 In the context of the provisions of these Rules, a distinction is made between the situation of a “potential conflict of interests” and the case of a “conflict of interests”. Only conflicts of interests are prohibited.

20.2 A situation of a potential conflict of interests arises when the opinion or decision of a person, acting alone or within an organisation, in the framework of the activities of the physical or legal persons defined in article 19 above, may be reasonably considered as liable to be influenced by relations that the aforementioned person has, has had or is on the point of having with another person or organisation that would be affected by the person’s opinion or decision.

20.3 A case of conflict of interests is constituted when any person who, having abstained from declaring a situation of a potential conflict of interests, expresses an opinion or takes a decision in the circumstances described in the above paragraph.

ARTICLE 21. TYPES OF INTERESTS TO TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION

21.1 In assessing the situations described in article 20 above, direct as well as indirect interests must be taken into account. This also includes the interests of a third person (parent, spouse, relation or dependent). In the following non-exhaustive list of examples, the circumstances in which a conflict of interests could arise are:

- personal and/or material involvement (salary, shareholding, various benefits) with suppliers of the WBSC party concerned;
- personal and/or material involvement with sponsors, broadcasters, various contracting parties;
- personal and/or material involvement with an organisation liable to benefit from the assistance of the WBSC party concerned (including subsidy, agreement or election).

ARTICLE 22. RESOLUTION OF POSSIBLE CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

22.1 It is the personal responsibility of each person to avoid any case of conflict of interests.

22.2 Faced with a situation of a potential conflict of interests, the person concerned must refrain from expressing an opinion, from making or participating in making a decision or accepting any form of benefit whatsoever. However, if the person wishes to continue to act or if the person is uncertain as to the steps to take, the person must inform the WBSC Ethics Commission of the situation, who then takes the steps foreseen below.
22.3 The WBSC Ethics Commission is responsible for advising persons, at their request, in a situation of a potential conflict of interests. The person concerned is then offered a solution from the following options:
  - registering the declaration without any particular measure;
  - removal of the person involved from part or all of the action or from the decision of the Olympic party at the root of the conflict;
  - relinquishment of the management of the external interest causing the conflict;
  - any complementary measures.

22.4 The person concerned then takes the steps that he/she considers appropriate.

22.5 The information given and the whole process will be kept confidential.

ARTICLE 23. UNDECLARED OR ACTUAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

23.1 In the event that a person neglects to declare a situation of a potential conflict of interests, and/or is in an actual situation of conflict of interests, the WBSC Ethics Commission may refer the case to the WBSC Executive Board proposing disciplinary sanctions as per this Code or the Disciplinary Rules By-Law

ARTICLE 24. SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

24.1 Prior to examination, by the WBSC Executive Board, of a candidature for election as a WBSC Member, a candidate must declare any risks of conflicts of interests to the WBSC Ethics Commission. The attention of the candidate may be drawn to any potential conflicts of interests identified. This does not exempt the candidate concerned from making subsequent declarations pursuant to Article 22.
CHAPTER IV – BASIC UNIVERSAL PRINCIPLES OF GOOD GOVERNANCE OF THE INTERNATIONAL BASEBALL/SOFTBALL FAMILY

The following articles are inspired by the IOC Code of Ethics chapter dedicated to Basic Universal Principles of Good Governance of the Olympic and Sports Movement.

ARTICLE 25. PRINCIPLE 1 – VISION, MISSION AND STRATEGY

25.1 Vision: the vision and overall goals of the organisations have to be clearly defined and communicated.

25.2 Mission: the mission should include:
- development and promotion of sport through non-profit organisations,
- promotion of the values of sport,
- organisation of competitions,
- ensuring a fair sporting contest at all times,
- protection of the members and particularly the athletes,
- solidarity,
- respect for the environment.

25.3 Strategy: the strategy is to be aligned with the vision and regularly adapted to the environment. The strategy of sporting organisations should be elaborated at the highest level of the organisation.

ARTICLE 26. PRINCIPLE 2 – STRUCTURES, REGULATIONS AND DEMOCRATIC PROCESS

26.1 Structures: all sports organisations in the International Baseball/Softball Family should be based on the concept of membership within entities established in accordance with applicable laws. The sports organisations should include as members legal or physical persons who constitute the organisation and contribute to form the will of the organisation. The stakeholders of the organisation encompass all members who make up the organisation as well as all external entities who are involved and have a link, relation with or interest in the organisation.

26.2 Clear regulations: all regulations of each organisation and governing body, including but not limited to, statutes, constitutions and other procedural regulations, should be clear, transparent, disclosed, publicised and made readily available. Clear regulations allow understanding, predictability and facilitate good governance. The procedure to modify or amend the regulations should also be clear and transparent.

26.3 Governing bodies: the size of the governing bodies should be adequate and consistent with the size of the sports organisations. The tasks and responsibilities of the governing bodies should be clearly defined in the applicable regulations and should be adapted and reviewed as necessary. Governing bodies should be entitled to create standing or ad hoc committees with specific responsibilities, in order to help them in their tasks. The organisation should set out and adopt reliable and appropriate criteria for the election or appointment of members of the governing bodies so as to ensure a high level of competence, quality and good governance.
Representative governing bodies: members of the organisation should be represented within the governing bodies, particularly women and athletes. Special care should be taken for protection and representation of minority groups.

Democratic processes: democratic processes, such as elections, should be governed by clear, transparent and fair rules.

Attributions of the respective bodies: a clear allocation of responsibilities between the different bodies such as general assembly, executive body, committees or disciplinary bodies, should be determined. There should be a balance of power between the bodies responsible for the management, supervision and control of the sporting organisations: principle of checks and balances.

Decision-making: all members of the sports organisations shall have the right to express their opinion on the issues on the agenda through appropriate channels. Members shall have the right to vote and be able to exercise that right in appropriate form as defined in the regulations of the governing body. Decision-making bodies should be fully aware of all relevant information before taking a decision. Bodies of the organisation should meet on a regular basis taking into consideration their specific duties and obligations.

Conflicts of interest: as a general principle, members of any decision-making body should be independent in their decisions. No-one with a personal or business interest in the issue under discussion should be involved in the decision. Adequate procedures should be established in order to avoid any conflicts of interests.

Election or renewal of office-bearers on a regular basis: the duration of the terms of office should be pre-determined in order to allow election/renewal of office-bearers on a regular basis. Access for new candidates should be encouraged.

Decisions and appeals: any member affected by a decision of a disciplinary nature taken by any sports organisation should be offered the possibility to submit an appeal to an independent body within the sport’s jurisdictions. When decisions are taken against a member, special attention should be paid to the appropriate balance between transparency and protection of privacy.

ARTICLE 27. PRINCIPLE 3 – HIGHEST LEVEL OF COMPETENCE, INTEGRITY AND ETHICAL STANDARDS

Competence of the members of the executive body: members of the executive body should be chosen on the basis of their ability, competence, quality, leadership capacity, integrity and experience. The use of outside experts in specific fields should be considered when necessary.

Power of signature: good governance implies proper financial monitoring. In order to avoid any abuse of powers of representation (in particular signing), adequate rules should be set up, approved and monitored at the highest level. Precise, clear and transparent regulations should be established and applied, and effective controlling systems and checks and balances should be put in place. As a general rule, individual signature should be avoided for binding obligations of an organisation.

Internal management, communication and coordination: good internal communication reinforces the efficiency of sporting organisations. Good information flow inside sporting organisations ensures good understanding by membership of activities undertaken and allows managers to make timely and informed decisions. Good working conditions and atmosphere as well as motivation and incentive policies are essential for the smooth functioning of the organisation.
27.4 Risk management: a clear and adequate risk-management process should be put in place. This is:
   - identification of potential risks for the sports organisations,
   - evaluation of risks,
   - control of risks,
   - monitoring of risks,
   - disclosure/transparency.

27.5 Appointment of the members of the management: leadership is above management. The majority of the members of management should be professional. Candidates should have professional competency and an impeccable professional history. The selection process should be based on objective criteria and should be set out clearly.

27.6 Code of Ethics and ethical issues: develop, adapt and implement ethical principles and rules. Ethical rules should refer to and be inspired by the IOC Code of Ethics. Monitor the implementation of ethical principles and rules.

ARTICLE 28. PRINCIPLE 4 – ACCOUNTABILITY, TRANSPARENCY AND CONTROL

28.1 Accountability: all bodies, whether elected or appointed, shall be accountable to the members of the organisation and, in certain cases, to their stakeholders. In particular, the executive body shall be accountable to the General Assembly of the organisation. Management shall be accountable to the executive body. All employees shall be accountable to management.

28.2 Processes and mechanisms: adequate standards and processes for accountability should be in place and available to all organisations, and consistently applied and monitored. Clear and measurable objectives and targets must be set for the organisation, its boards, management and staff, including also appropriate tools for assessment.

28.3 Transparency and communication: financial information should be disclosed gradually and in appropriate form to members, stakeholders and the public. Disclosure of financial information should be done on an annual basis. The financial statements of sports organisations should be presented in a consistent way in order to be easily understood.

28.4 Financial matters – Applicable laws, rules, procedures and standards: accounts should be established in accordance with the applicable laws and “True and fair view” principle. The application of internationally recognised standards should be strongly encouraged in all sports organisations and required for an international body. For all organisations, annual financial statements are to be audited by independent and qualified auditors. Accountability and financial reports should be produced on a regular basis. Information about remuneration and financial arrangements of the governing bodies’ members should be part of the annual accounts. Clear rules regarding remuneration of the members of governing bodies and managers should be enforced. Remuneration procedures should be transparent and predictable.
