The elections finished, the new Executive Committee take their place behind the table. The President thanks the Legal Commission for the good work conducting the elections and announces a break of one hour for the first meeting of the Executive Committee.

The Aoth ceremony is conducted by the Legal Commission. Mr. Halvarson, elected but absent will take the oath at the first meeting of the Executive Committee. The President thanks the delegates and states that he will work, in close collaboration with Alexander Ratner, for Olympic baseball.

Mr. Aldo Notari is nominated Honorary President and receives the plaque confirming this nomination. Mr. Notari thanks the new Executive Committee and states that, although his retirement from C.E.B., he will continue, as President of IBAF, to work for Olympic baseball.

Mr. Gaston Panaye is nominated Honorary Secretary General and receives also the plaque confirming this nomination. He thanks the Executive Committee and states, as Mr. Notari, that he will continue to help his successors to assure the actual standard of the administration.

The Dutch President, Mr. Rijpstra, hands over a souvenir gift to both honorary members, who are the face of C.E.B. since many years.

The Georgian President, Mr. Goglidze, remembers Roger Panaye and presents both nominees the diploma of the Georgian Olympic Committee. He states that we should ignore negative critics and work united for Olympic baseball.

The President announces that the Executive Committee decided not to make changes at the Commissions. Mr. Jan Esselman becomes Chairman of the Technical Commission.

The organizers give the delegates the necessary information for the dinner at the residence of the mayor.

The President closes the Congress and look forward to meet again at the European Championship in July.

Gaston Panaye
Former Secretary General
