4. to do or engage in any other act to which a Member that is in Good Standing is otherwise entitled to do.

8.2 All Members are obligated to do the following ("Obligations"):

1. to support WBSC OCEANIA in its efforts to achieve its objectives;
2. to act in accordance with the decisions of WBSC OCEANIA and the Congress ;
3. to pay the annual fee and all other financial obligations;
4. to maintain itself as a Member in Good Standing;
5. to maintain membership of the WBSC and pay all fees that may become due and payable as advised by the WBSC.

ARTICLE 9. DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

9.1 Any Member, member of a Member, or competition participant may be subject to disciplinary action by the Executive Committee :

1. if duties and/or Obligations to WBSC OCEANIA are not fulfilled;
2. for violating the Articles of Association, the Codes, Rules, and/or decisions of the Congress ; or
3. for bringing the sport of Baseball or the sport of Softball into disrepute.

9.2 Possible disciplinary orders include:

1. a warning;
2. a fine;
3. a declaration that a Member is not in Good Standing;
4. suspension;
5. termination of membership; and/or
6. expulsion or exclusion from WBSC OCEANIA Competitions or events.

9.3 Disciplinary decisions may be imposed by the specifically designated investigative body, which shall be appointed by the WBSC OCEANIA Executive Committee to investigate and decide the issue, pursuant to the protections of these Articles of Association.

9.4 Any discipline imposed on a competitor or other Person by WBSC OCEANIA , a Member, or a WBSC OCEANIA -recognised body shall be recognised and enforced by all Members across all countries and territories governed by a Member.

9.5 Before any Member or individual is disciplined, except when the action is merely a warning, the individual or a representative of the Member will be given the right to appear before the designated Committee, either in person or in writing. The Secretary General of WBSC OCEANIA shall inform the respective Person about this right, in writing, in sufficient time to allow the Person to exercise this right. The Person who is the subject of the hearing shall have the right to be represented by counsel. In cases where the integrity of the sport and/or exigent circumstances demand prompt action, a temporary restriction may be put into force before any hearing during which the individual or Member has the opportunity to exercise this right.

9.6 Disciplinary decisions shall be in force immediately upon the decision being made unless the deciding body rules otherwise.

9.7 Appeals

1. Any Person disciplined by a body other than the Executive Committee may appeal the action to the Executive Committee, except in cases involving doping, which may only be appealed as set out below in Article 9.7.
2. Any appeal must be submitted by the appealing party to the WBSC OCEANIA Office within twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of the decision. The person appealing to the Executive Committee shall be given notice and shall have the opportunity to present arguments to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall decide the appeal within sixty (60) days of submission, whether on the written arguments, or following oral arguments if scheduled by the Executive Committee in its discretion.
3. An individual or Member who has appealed an action and who is dissatisfied by the decision by the Executive Committee may further appeal to the WBSC Lausanne, Switzerland, within twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of the decision by the Executive Committee.
4. In the case of a doping charge or in the case of a Person disciplined by the Executive Committee, any individual who has been disciplined may appeal directly to the WBSC within twenty-one (21) days of the receipt of the decision.
5. In any matter brought before the WBSC, the WBSC shall have exclusive jurisdiction, including over interlocutory orders, and no other court or tribunal shall have authority to issue interlocutory orders relating to matters before the WBSC. Decisions by the WBSC shall be final and binding, subject only to the provisions of the Swiss Private International Law Act, section 190.

9.8 A Member's affiliation to WBSC OCEANIA shall automatically end if the Member no longer exists as a legal entity or if the Member withdraws its affiliation by giving written notice thereof to the WBSC OCEANIA, but terminating the status as a National Federation shall not terminate the Member's obligations to the WBSC OCEANIA.

9.9 In any case where a Member affiliation with WBSC OCEANIA ends, no refunds of fees previously paid to WBSC OCEANIA (such as under Article 10) shall be made, and all WBSC

OCEANIA property shall be returned and materials indicating that it is a Member shall immediately be returned to WBSC or destroyed.

ARTICLE 10. FEES, REVENUES, AND EXPENSES

10.1 WBSC OCEANIA shall be empowered to raise funds to the maximum extent permitted by law, and by whatever means proper under these Articles of Association. The income and property of WBSC OCEANIA shall be used towards the fulfilment of the Objectives as determined by the Executive Committee in the proper exercise of its powers, or the management of WBSC OCEANIA under the control of the Executive Committee .

10.3 The Executive Committee of the WBSC OCEANIA shall be charged with ensuring compliance with this goal.

10.4 WBSC OCEANIA is liable for its obligations with its assets. Such liability is limited to these assets. The liability of Members is limited to their dues.

ARTICLE 11. ORGANIZATION OF WBSC OCEANIA

1. The sport shall be responsible, through the WBSC Oceania (which shall be constituted by and through the WBSC under the Articles of the WBSC OCEANIA , for the technical rules and competition supervision and organization, and international development, respectively of the sport of Baseball and all its disciplines and the sport of Softball and all its disciplines. The VP for the Baseball and the VP for the Softball will be part of the WBSC OCEANIA Executive Committee
2. The Baseball and Softball VPs are authorized and entitled to raise revenue to benefit their respective disciplines and shall create, manage and control competitions in their respective sports: Provided, however, that any sponsorship or third party contract to be entered into by the WBSC OCEANIA name or logos, or any broadcast agreement to be entered into by the WBSC OCEANIA name or logos shall be submitted to the Executive Committee for its approval. Should the Executive Committee believe that the proposed competition, the proposed sponsorship or third party contract or the proposed broadcasting contract would conflict with other WBSC OCEANIA agreements or would reflect negatively on the WBSC OCEANIA , the Executive Committee may withhold approval for to grant such rights.

11.2 The following entities are established to govern and administer WBSC OCEANIA :

1. the Congress ;
2. the Executive Committee ; and
3. any Commissions.

ARTICLE 12. THE CONGRESS

12.1 The Congress is the highest authority of WBSC OCEANIA and shall have the power to decide upon any matters arising in WBSC OCEANIA .

12.2 The Congress shall consist of the following:

1. up to two (2) delegates for each National Federation in Good Standing who have been appointed by the National Federation and whose credentials are accepted by WBSC OCEANIA ("Accredited Delegates"). A National Federation which governs only baseball or only softball in its country shall have a single delegate; a National Federation which governs both baseball and softball in its country may have up to two (2) delegates, one for each sport. Notice of the appointment of delegates, certified in writing by the National Federation they represent must be lodged with the WBSC OCEANIA Secretary General no less than seven (7) days prior to the opening of the Congress . Each delegate representing a National Federation for Softball and each delegate representing a National Federation for Baseball shall have one vote, provided, however, if a National Federation for both Softball and Baseball is represented by only a single delegate, such delegate shall be entitled to two votes. A Member that is not in Good Standing on the date of the Congress may attend only through a non-voting representative. Accredited Delegates and non-voting representatives shall not be recognized if they are subject to a disciplinary decision that prohibits participation in a Congress . No Accredited Delegate or representative shall represent more than one Member.
2. all members of the Executive Committee , without vote;
3. the Immediate Past President (if any), without vote;
4. all other categories of Members, including Associate Members, without vote;
5. all others whose attendance is authorized by the Congress , without vote.

12.3 The President shall control the conduct of a Congress ("Chair"). Should the President for any reason be unavailable, then one of the Executive Vice Presidents chosen by the Executive Committee shall preside and thereafter alternating between them if the President is again not available, or if no Executive Vice President is available then the Secretary General shall be the Chair, in that order. If no such person is available, the Executive Committee shall elect one among them to serve as Chair.

12.4 WBSC OCEANIA will convene its inaugural and establishment Congress in 2018 and from thereon will meet for a Congress every second calendar year, in the odd numbered year (commencing in 2019) and at a time and in a place determined by the Executive Committee, save for a Special Congress that shall be convened pursuant to Article 12.10. The Secretary General shall advise the exact date and location of every Congress at least three (3) months prior to the fixed date of the meeting, and the exact date and location of every Special Congress as soon as that Special Congress is validly called in conformance with Article 12.10. The Secretary General shall send an invitation to all Members, together with the agenda for the Congress and any reports as in Article 12.6(c) below and together with all duly submitted motions and applications at least one (1) month prior to the date fixed for the meeting.

12.5 The Congress has a quorum if more than half of the eligible voting delegates are represented. If within a reasonable period after the designated start time for a Congress the Secretary General has conducted the Roll Call and established that a quorum is not present, then and for that time deliberations may be had but no Motion or resolution shall be adopted. The eligible voting delegates then present, even if not a quorum, may delegate to the Executive Committee any matter to be considered at that Congress for its deliberations and any action other than the election. Any such matter shall be considered and acted upon by the Executive Committee in the same period scheduled for the Congress.

12.6 Except for the inaugural General Session which will be as set by the Executive Committee, the order of business of the General Session of a Congress shall be:

1. Roll call and declaration of a quorum;
2. Approval of the minutes of the previous Congress ;
3. Reports;
4. Approval of new Members;
5. Consideration and approval of bids;
6. Amendments to the Articles of Association, the Codes or Rules;
7. Election of Officers;
8. Consideration whether to take up Motions under Article 12.7

10. Adjournment.

12.7 Motions, applications and proposals for alteration of or addition to the Articles of Association or any Rules of WBSC OCEANIA shall be considered only if submitted by a Member or by the Executive Committee . Any proposal for alteration of any Code may only be generated by the responsible Division. All motions, applications, and proposals to be considered by the Congress must reach the Secretary General at least two (2) calendar months prior to the Congress and must appear on the agenda given to the Members in accordance with Article 13.4. On a motion of urgency approved by a two thirds majority of those Members present and voting, the Congress may deal with new proposals not appearing on the agenda.

12.8 Any alteration of or addition to the Articles of Association agreed upon by the Congress shall become effective immediately unless otherwise determined at the time of such approval. Any alteration of or addition to the Codes or Rules agreed upon by the Congress shall not become effective earlier than two (2) months after the decision has been made.

12.9 The Codes are the operating documents of the respective Baseball and Softball VPs, and may be amended only by vote at the Executive Committee meeting

12.10 A Special Congress may be requested by a petition signed by at least a fifth (1/5) of the current Members in Good Standing, or by the Executive Committee . It shall be summoned by the Secretary General within forty-five (45) days following the appropriate request, to convene no later than ninety (90) days after receipt of the petition or the decision of the Executive Committee . The Secretary General shall provide notice at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled start of the Special Congress . Within the same period of time, the Secretary General shall send the Agenda to all the Members, including the location, the time of the first session opening and notification of all the topics to be dealt with which, in any case, will be the only ones on which valid resolutions can be passed. At a Special Congress , Committee and lodging expenses from the day prior to the start of the Congress to the day after its conclusion, for a single Delegate of each member Federation, Association or Organisation of the WBSC present at the Congress throughout the duration of the same shall be at the WBSC's charge.

Voting may be conducted remotely such as by phone, facsimile or other means, including signed circular resolutions and other electronic means.

13.3 Membership on the Executive Committee shall not render such member personally liable for the debts and obligations of WBSC OCEANIA . WBSC OCEANIA hereby indemnifies each member of the Executive Committee against any liability of that member arising from the discharge of his or her duties whilst acting in good faith and honestly.

13.4 Athlete Representatives Committee shall be appointed as follows:

1. The Athlete Representatives shall be appointed during an election year by eligible players (which eligibility shall be determined by the Baseball and Softball respectively pursuant to standards which shall have been established by the Executive Committee) in accordance with such election process and procedure determined by the Baseball and Softball Divisions respectively and which is approved by the Executive Committee . The voting for Athlete Representatives is to be conducted by and within each of the Baseball and Softball Divisions. The term of an Athlete Representative Committee shall be four (4) years with the exception that the term of the first appointed Athlete Representatives will be until the elective Congress in 2021.
2. The Executive Committee Members shall be nominated by the National Federation Members of each of the Executive Committee and elected by the Congress of the WBSC OCEANIA . A National Federation may nominate no more than one person to stand for election for each position/role as an Executive Member to the Executive Committee . The term of a Executive Committee Members position on the Executive Committee shall be four (4) years with the exception that the term of the first elected Executive Members will be until the elective Congress in 2021

13.6 The members of the Executive Committee shall serve until their successors are elected and take office.

13.7 The Executive Committee shall have the authority to fill any vacancy which occurs through death or resignation or any other reason of any Member of the Executive Committee , except for Athlete Representatives. Should a vacancy occur in an Athlete Representative position, the Executive Committee shall establish a mechanism, if necessary, for the eligible athletes to elect a replacement. The person elected shall serve until the expiration of the term of office for which the person has been elected.

13.8 Where an Executive Committee member has been absent from two consecutive meetings without reasons acceptable to the Executive Committee, the Executive Committee shall have the right to declare that such a member has forfeited his position. The Executive Committee according to Article 13.7 may then fill the vacancy.

13.9 The rights and duties of the Executive Committee shall include the following:

1. to discuss and make decisions on all matters assigned to them by the Congress ;
2. to interpret and enforce the Rules of WBSC OCEANIA ;
3. to decide and take action on any matter pertaining to the affairs of WBSC OCEANIA ;
4. to submit proposals and motions to the Congress ;
5. to decide on and publish administrative by-laws, including time and manner of payment of any financial obligations;
6. to decide on and publish regulations for WBSC OCEANIA competitions, promulgated by the sports for submission to the Executive Committee ;
7. to decide on WBSC OCEANIA awards;
8. to make decisions in case of emergency;
9. to establish rules of order for the meetings of the Congress , Executive Committee , Commissions, etc., provided that they will not be in conflict with the Articles of Association of WBSC;
10. to determine the dates and sites of WBSC OCEANIA competitions and to organize and control all WBSC OCEANIA competitions
11. provide a written report of its activities to every Congress ;
12. propose or in the proper delegation of its authority cause a Commission to propose amendments to the Articles of Association or a Code or a Rule;
13. monitor, supervise and orient the activities of Commissions;
14. ensure that the decisions of a Congress are timely and properly implemented;
15. review materials to be presented to a Congress and, if required, approve the documents to be presented to the Congress when they are issued under its responsibility or its authority, and issue any recommendations and comments that it deems necessary; and

16. otherwise take all actions as required or necessitated by these Articles of Association and every Code.

13.10 The Executive Committee is not authorized to make any changes in the Articles of Association, the Codes or Rules.

13.11 Except for Athlete Representatives, members of the Executive Committee shall not participate or otherwise be involved in WBSC competition as a player, manager, coach, umpire, or scorer.

13.12 The Executive Committee shall operate as follows.

1. The Executive Committee shall meet by teleconference at least four times every calendar year, and at least one every four year during which a Congress is held, may or may not be during the Congress, and a meeting of the Executive Committee may take place in whole or in part via electronic means (a "Meeting"). Unless the Executive Committee shall approve a meeting on short notice ("Extraordinary Meeting"), notice must be given not less than sixty (60) calendar days before a meeting of the Executive Committee, with a request for items or information for the agenda. Any matter to be discussed at a Meeting other than an extraordinary Meeting must be received by the Secretary General at least twenty-one (21) calendar days before the Meeting. The Secretary General shall publish a written notice of such Meeting confirming the date, time, and location of the meeting, and provide agenda items and supporting documentation not less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to each Meeting. Once a final written notice of a Meeting has been made, the Meeting may only be cancelled by majority vote of the Executive Committee.
2. A quorum of the Committee shall consist of 50% of the persons then holding a position on the Committee. The President shall preside at every Meeting of the Executive Committee, failing which one of Executive Vice Presidents shall preside in his or her place, and then alternating between them for subsequent meetings at which the President may be absent, and in the absence of either Executive Vice President, the Secretary General shall preside, failing which the members of the Executive Committee in attendance shall elect a chair of the meeting.
3. The Secretary General shall take or cause to be taken the minutes of the Meeting of the Executive Committee, provide draft minutes within twenty (20) calendar days after the Meeting and publish them within thirty (30) calendar days to every Member and on the WBSC OCEANIA web site. At every Meeting of the Executive Committee, each member of the Executive Committee shall declare any conflict of interest involving any matter on the agenda or otherwise discussed at the Meeting, which conflict(s) shall be recorded in the minutes. A member of the Executive Committee may, with the prior written consent of the Secretary General, participate in a Meeting not called as a fully electronic meeting of the Executive Committee and be present by telephonic or other means of electronic communication as long as all participants can be clearly heard. A member of the Executive Committee attending a Meeting in this way shall be deemed to be present and this will not count as an absence.

4. No member of the Executive Committee shall attend by or give a proxy to another person and no vote shall be taken by or opinion expressed by proxy. A resolution shall be validly passed if adopted by a majority of members of the Executive Committee present and voting. Unless otherwise agreed by the Meeting of the Executive Committee in question, the minutes of that meeting, in whole or in part, shall be public. If a quorum of members of the Executive Committee is not present at the start of a Meeting of the Executive Committee, that Meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum is established. No business can be conducted or actions taken without a quorum.
5. Notwithstanding the above, a member of the Executive Committee may request that the Executive Committee meet on an expedited basis provided that more than two-thirds of the members agree in writing to hold such a meeting ("Special Committee Meeting"). The procedures in this Article which apply to regular Meetings shall apply to every Special Committee Meeting, but the notice, agenda, and distribution requirements may be waived by vote of the Executive Committee.
